

Tennis Writing Assignment-Sadie Burrows, Age 6

I want to respect the world.

I want to respect my friends.

I want to respect the world, you see, so I can meet new friends.

If I don't meet new friends, you see, I will be so lonely.

If I'm lonely, you see, how will I learn to play tennis?

If the world is not respected

It will be a garbagey, gunky world, I see.

So alas, we should respect the world.
